Liev Schreiber, Coco Rocha, Naomi Watts, Brooke Shields, & more attend NYAA's TriBeCa Ball

On Monday, April 8th, The New York Academy of Art hosted their 24th annual TriBeCa Ball at the Academy's Franklin Street building honoring artist Brian Donnelly aka KAWS. The event was produced in partnership with Van Cleef & Arpels with bubbly provided by Champagne Bollinger throughout the studio.

The city's art-world insiders and A-listers including Liev Schreiber, Coco Rocha, Naomi Watts, Brooke Shields, and Kevin O'Leary (aka Mr. Wonderful), Donna Karan and more, attended the New York Academy of Art's TriBeCa Ball. Upon entering, guests were greeted by stilt walkers pouring Champagne Bollinger's Special Cuvée from magnum sized bottles.

As soon as she arrived, Brooke Shields immediately went over to the character on stilts and watched in admiration as he poured Champagne Bollinger into her glass. Coco Rocha interacted with the stilt walkers as well, even taking the magnum sized Bollinger bottle from them to pose for pictures.

As the cocktail portion of the evening started to near an end and the staff started to guide guests into the dinner, Brooke Shields took matters into her own hands, grabbed a bottle of Champagne Bollinger's Special Cuvée, and topped off her glass of bubbly.
