

The Best Bottles of Bubbles to Ring in the New Year

As the countdown to the 2024 begins, it's time to raise a glass and celebrate with the finest sparkling wines and champagnes.

Whether you're planning a lavish soirée or an intimate gathering, choosing the perfect bubbly can elevate any festivity to new heights. With a myriad of options available, selecting the best bottle to ring in the new year can be a delightful yet daunting task. From classic champagnes to sparkling wines from around the world, the choices are endless. To help you make a sparkling selection, we've curated a list of the best bottles of bubbles to ensure your new year's celebration is nothing short of extraordinary.

Bollinger Special Cuvée

Champagne Bollinger is known to be from one of the last great Champagne families, crafting iconic bubbles for nearly two centuries. Bollinger's Special Cuvée is the perfect bottle of bubbly to share on New Year's Eve, with a powerful, refined, and complex taste that captures the essence of the fruit. Bonus: Bollinger uses sustainable wine growing methods by grassing over the ground, using biological pest control, reducing the use of herbicides, recycling pruning waste and planting hedges and orchards to encourage biodiversity. $95

Juvé + Camps Reserva de la Familia

Pop a bottle of Juvé + Camps' Reserva de la Familia for a festive evening. This pale gold cava features notes of mature white peach, toasted bread, and green tea that will entice your taste buds. $23